At the market

Outdoor markets are very popular in Germany! Local farmers sell their fruits, vegetables, cheeses, and meats, but don't expect to find things that aren't food, like clothes and jewelry.

One Euro, two Euro

In English, say one Euro, two Euros. Not in German! It's always just Euro.

 Die Milch kostet zwei Euro

The milk costs two Euros

Drei Kilo, bitte!

Three kilograms, please!

Eins, zwei, drei, let's go!

How many days are in a week? How many people are in your family? How many apples are in your kitchen?
